

SHORT CV: BOBBY M. TUAZON

Currently: Director for Policy Studies, Center for People Empowerment in Governance (CenPEG);

As professor, he formerly served as Chairman, Political Science Program, University of the Philippines (UP), Manila;

Awarded 6 times as Most Outstanding Faculty, UP, Manila;

Co-author and Editor of 15 books, including Fraud: Gloria M. Arroyo and the May 2004 Elections (2006); Oligarchic Politics: Elections and the Party-List System in the Philippines (2007); Dissecting Corruption: Philippine Perspectives (2007); The Moro Reader: History and Contemporary Struggles of the Bangsamoro People (2008); The CenPEG Report: On the May 2010 Automated Elections in the Philippines (2010); 12 Years of the Party-List System: Marginalizing People's Representation (2011); Was Your Vote Counted? Unveiling the Myths about the Philippine Automated Elections (2013); and Policy Issues: From Gloria to Noyonoy (2014)

Wrote and published at least 300 political analyses, scholarly and conference papers;

Resource person in the Philippines Congress; resource political analyst of Philippine and foreign media (newspapers and TV);

Conference speaker and lecturer in universities and NGOs in Asia, Europe, and United States;

Has extensive experience in the Philippines and foreign media as publisher, editor, opinion columnist, and commentator;

Fields of interest and policy research: foreign policy and international relations; political parties and electoral reform; governance and corruption